Families were welcomed at the front and back doors by staff and 5 volunteers: Kyle Collins, Sergio Urrutia, Brenda Guess, Mikala McIntosh, & Paul Hearn. PJHS had families sign in on Jr. High Chromebooks or on paper if they were not comfortable with the laptop. (Family & Community Engagement sign in sheets were not used. Attendance will be off as Jr. High did not account for Family and Community Engagement and how we have every single person sign in.) Families were directed to the Cafetorium for the Title I meeting in which Jennifer Studebaker presented a power point. Jennifer welcomed families and talked through her presentation about the following: PJHS is Title I, why and what money is used for, Opportunities at PJHS, Google Classrooms and calendars, the different ways PJHS communicates with families, The STOP!T app, Dress code, Attendance, and How PJHS celebrates their students. Families were dismissed to visit classrooms. Teachers had booths on the PJHS back porch in which each department and/or teacher gave out information to families. Families were thanked for coming and given a cookies as they left.
