Information Given or offered: How to Give Kids Effective Instructions/English & Spanish, Importance of Reading & Following Directions/English & Spanish, Painting Instructions English & Spanish

Families were welcomed and signed in. When signing in they received How to Give Kids Effective Instructions and The Importance of Reading & Following Directions in English and Spanish. Families were directed into the cafeteria in which they were able to pick out a pre-drawn canvas and instructions that were available in English and Spanish. They were then directed to the paint table in which they received their paint plate. Snacks and water available to families. Families painted while staff and PHS art helped and assisted families as needed.

Coloring sheets and crayons available for little ones that were tired of painting. The families seemed to have a wonderful time and we were told thanks by many for having this event and how much fun it was! The event was originally scheduled from 6-7 pm but some took longer to paint so we waited until all were finished.
